PRESS RELEASE

Ecce Theatre
Crazed
by Catherine Cranfield

Exposing, exploitive and honest account of student life

Six long time friends are halfway through the best years of their lives at Manchester University when they are blind sided by the divisiveness of what they once thought was a simple topic: consent. As the year unfolds and sides are taken, they are forced to question everything they thought they knew about relationships, trust, and where the lines are drawn when you're off your head.

A fast paced drama, Crazed fearlessly displays the ugliest dimensions of student life, peeling back the glamour of youth to reveal ugly cracks full of drinks, drugs, and drama. Ecce Theatre creates a raw and claustrophobic atmosphere that unflinchingly confronts its audience with disturbing truths.

Ecce Theatre is a bold and innovative theatre company, created by young adults, who produce vibrant work that speaks to the younger generation and resonates with the older.
