

C theatre Shakespeare in the Garden: Twelfth Night, or What You Will

by William Shakespeare

A perfect introduction to Shakespeare in the picturesque garden surroundings of St Peter's Bring a picnic and indulge your senses in this refreshing new staging of Shakespeare's much-loved play. Will poor Viola ever find her twin brother Sebastian? Adventure, suspense and lots of laughs in the most pleasant and carefree atmosphere at the Fringe.

Families will love this site-specific outdoor performance that brings the original language to life in an accessible and relaxed format. Located a short walk away from the hustle and bustle of old town, Shakespeare in the Garden is the perfect theatrical respite from a busy festival schedule.

Director Oliver Stephens previously delighted audiences as Puck in last year's critically acclaimed production and now brings over fifteen years experience captivating audiences to his directoral debut. A regular with The Globe Players, Stephens is well known for his previous success producing, creating and co-starring in the award-winning Sylvia's Ball.

C theatre is the in-house production company of C venues at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe. This year the company celebrates a quarter century of producing new and classic drama as well as its own popular children's theatre programme. C theatre is renown at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe and on tour both internationally and in the UK.

Shakespeare in the Garden: Twelfth Night, or What You Will is one of six shows produced by C theatre this Festival.
