PRESS RELEASE

Gavin Lind (Australia) Committed to Mediocrity

Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the most mediocre of them all? Gavin Lind storms the stage at the ripe age of 41. No, not old. Just ripe

Join Gavin Lind, a fresh face on the Melbourne comedy scene, as he explores life's rocky road. Being middle-aged, gay and married is difficult enough without having a mildly annoying vegetarian accent. Which makes picking holes and kicking down the ordinary lives of the rest of the world Gavin's survival mechanism as he tries to validate his existence.

Do all or any of the unique attributes by which he is defined (by himself and by others) really make him different to everyone else? And with no more hopes and aspirations, does it really matter anyway? Mid-life crisis? No, being cantankerous is the reward for reaching 40! As is developing a dad-bod.

As he navigates his way to old age, Gavin (rather frustratingly) realises that not only is he merely committed to mediocrity, but he also wants to be the best at it.
