Shakespeare's School That Face by Polly Stenham

Shakespeare's School takes on Polly Stenham's award-winning debut

Mia is at boarding school. She has access to drugs. They are Martha's. Henry is preparing for art college. He has access to alcohol. From Martha. Martha controls their lives. Martha is their mother. That Face is a hard-hitting, intense and visceral dissection of children who become parents to their parents.

An exhilarating new staging of Polly Stenham's award-winning play which premiered at the Royal Court Theatre, 2007. Written when she was only 19, Stenham's play won multiple awards and, following its debut, had a West End and New York run.

This intensely moving piece will be performed by a highly talented ensemble of young actors from Shakespeare's School (King Edward VI School in Stratford-upon-Avon) – the place where Shakespeare himself began his studies.
