PRESS RELEASE

Music Theatre Warwick The Improv Musical

Award-winning improvised musical returns to the Fringe for a third fantastic year. The show is entirely in your hands!

Ready to take the Edinburgh Fringe by storm once more, The Improv Musical cast return to deliver musical mayhem that will leave you roaring with laughter.

Following their sell-out season in 2015, the smash-hit runaway success, The Improv Musical returns to deliver night after night of musicals that you won't believe are made up on the spot.

Witness a completely improvised musical that relies entirely on suggestions from the audience, turning each show into a unique experience. The audience chooses the characters, the scenario, and even the song titles. Watch your ideas come to life, complete with memorable tunes, catchy lyrics, and the occasional dance routine. The show is in your hands and anything can (and usually does) happen.

Music Theatre Warwick is the musical theatre society at the University of Warwick, producing sell-out musicals at the Warwick Arts Centre and seeing alumni go on to take lead roles in West End and touring musicals including Loserville the Musical and Ghost the Musical.
