Bubble Laboratory (Australia and Romania) Bubble Show for Adults Only by Kurt Murray and Iulia Benze

The Bubble Show your mother warned you about has finally made it to Edinburgh for the 2017 Fringe to give bubbles a sexy makeover

Originally meant to be premiered in the 2016 Edinburgh Fringe, Bubble Show for Adults Only was cancelled to the dismay of many punters, when a month before the festival lead performer Kurt Murray took a fall during a show that resulted in back surgery. Luckily for all of us whose curiosity was tickled by the idea of an adult bubble show, a full recovery was made to bring us this original production armed with every bubble trick in the book shown in the naughtiest way possible.

'Ever since we did our first bubble show for children it was clear the adults were just as amazed as the children by our skills with bubbles... says Kurt Murray 'and when trying to innovate new bubble ideas was not uncommon to be attempting a bubble sculpture only to accidentally create something I would realise could not go in a children's because it looks indecent or resembled a... I will let you use your imagination.'

It turns out that after five years in the world of bubble performance, Kurt and his partner in bubble innovation, Iulia Benze, have ended up with so many bubble concepts that were hilariously cheeky and definitely not for minors that they were able to deliver on a full length show for those of us on the hunt for that something completely different during this year's fringe.

Iulia Benze who, no surprise, also performs annually at the Edinburgh Fringe as the infamous white statue Lady Whistle who flashes her knickers at passers-by for donations, said 'The show is a combination of cabaret, kink and physical performance that uses body bubbling, fire bubbles, bubble sculptures, foam burlesque, anatomy bubbles to illustrate a tale of a couple's conventional and unconventional relationship dilemmas.'
