

Poot Productions Bottles by Tom Dewey

A play for anyone who's ever gone OUT-out

Co-produced with Spoken Word Champion 2016 Tom Dewey, Bottles is a stirring new piece of theatre exploring the ups and downs of a night on the town through the eyes of a group of young women. Inspired by the experiences of everyone who has ventured OUT-out and returned home with tales that can make your skin crawl, stories that would have your friends in hysterics or experiences you just can't talk about. Having said that, sometimes people don't return home at all.

Bottles invites you to join Ellie and her friends swerve the groping, discover the strength of female empowerment and chow down on some questionable fried chicken. And to watch Alex, who came along by accident, discover things about himself before something changes his life forever.

Using comedy, movement, spoken word and a banging soundtrack, Bottles will stir up solidarity, laughter, anger and confusion at the rules dictated to women by men, on nights when they just want to have some damn fun! Poot Productions is a group of exciting young performers from the Cabot Learning Federation in Bristol. The show was devised during an intensive fortnight of work with director Sam Bridges and writer Tom Dewey.
