PRESS RELEASE

Morphe Theatre
OwlTime
by Charlie Wiseman

A captivating performance giving voice to the most marginalised communities

A fairytale set in a surreal landscape, Owltime has been inspired by interviews with the most vulnerable in our society, including refugees living in the Calais Jungle. With a voiceover from Ewan McGregor, as well as videos from national treasure Timothy West, the show explores the marginalised communities the company visited through a vivid combination of music, performance, magic and sand art.

After touring worldwide, the team have accumulating praise from renowned supporters such as Susan Sarandon, Kenneth Branagh and Irving Wardle. Accompanied by music from the award winning musician Alexandra Kremakova, this authentic and compassionate performance is certain to inspire audiences.
