

C theatre Shakespeare for Kids: Toil and Trouble

by Oliver Stephens, after William Shakespeare

William Shakespeare and some of his fabulous friends are back for another year of adventures, suspense and magic!

This year we will take you on a truly enchanting journey. An unconventional collage of original plays from Shakespeare. Expect the witches, Ariel, Caliban, Puck and much more as we explore the magical world of the Bard's works.

Shakespeare for Kids aims to give children a perfect introduction to some of Shakespeare's much loved plays, bringing his original language to life for new audiences, this is an accessible, interactive and relaxed performance in the picturesque surroundings of St Peter's gardens.

Shakespeare for Kids: Toil and Trouble is one of seven shows produced by C theatre this Festival.

'Highly recommended... fun family show' Primary Times

'An energetic and interactive introduction to the best of the bard'
FringeReview.com

The performance will take place indoors in the event of heavy rain.
