PRESS RELEASE

The Oxford Belles The Oxford Belles: Blame It On the Belles

Oxford University's sassiest all-female a cappella group are back!

Established in 1995 to combat the male dominated Oxford music scene, The Oxford Belles are infamous for their inexhaustible sass, confidence and girl power. Living up to the legacy of their predecessors, these ten strong, independent women have traded the dreaming spires for the cobbles of the Royal Mile and are ready to blow you away. With impressive arrangements of everything from chart hits to R'n'B classics, the Belles have a focus and charm that you won't find anywhere else. Whether you are looking for a smooth ballad with euphoric harmonies or a fierce feminist anthem, the Belles have something for everyone.

Used to performing regularly on the Oxford music circuit, at everything from garden parties to balls, the Belles are no strangers to the stage. With kick-ass choreography the show will be a visual and vocal spectacle to entertain and enthral even the most cynical of fringe-goers. As Oxford's original all-female a cappella group, The Oxford Belles, will put on a show that certainly won't disappoint.
