In the Quirks Theatre The Missing Girl of Grigglewood

A fast-paced high-energy physical comedy with Gothic fairy-tale themes

The Missing Girl of Grigglewood is a Gothic tale of a young girl named Rose, who mysteriously goes missing in the tiny town of Grigglewood, leaving her brother and Father on a mission to find her.

On their journey through the town they meet the strange residents of Grigglewood, and although they get themselves in deeper trouble than they bargained for, they stop at nothing till they find their precious Rose. The show is filled with witty humour, improvisation, live music, dark slapstick comedy and a crazy adventure you are sure not to forget!

All members of In The Quirks Theatre studied Drama and Physical Theatre at St Mary's University Twickenham and specialise in comedy, physical theatre and improvisation. These skills are used throughout the Self-Devised The Missing Girl of Grigglewood and transports their audience into the eerie world that is Grigglewood. In The Quirks' witty script gives them the ability to break the fourth wall, while still keeping their audience engaged in the outlandish world.

Some members of In The Quirks and 3 members of the cast of The Missing Girl of Grigglewood also performed and devised 'The Dragon' By 'Dead Rabbits' in the Edmonton Fringe Festival, Canada 2016. Receiving 5 star reviews and even won two awards for Staff Pick and Media's Pick.
