C theatre
The Snow Queen
by Hans Christian Andersen, adapted by
Bernie C Byrnes

Based on Hans Christian Anderson's enchanting tale, this classic fable is a poetic exploration of what love means

Our brave hero Gerda embarks on a journey across an icy wonderland, facing difficult obstacles and finding new friends on his quest to set his brother Kay free, defeat the Snow Queen, and warm the hearts of people everywhere.

Hans Christian Anderson's timeless tale has been adapted for stage by C theatre veteran Bernie C Byrnes. This dark fable utilises physical theatre and movement to meditate on the themes of friendship, struggle and growing up. Set to beautiful classical score this mystical adventure is beautifully toned, using metaphor, movement and poetry.

A great introduction to slightly more serious theatre for children a bit too grown up for pantomimes. Brought to you by the team behind C theatre hits The Ugly Duckling and Hansel and Gretel and the critically acclaimed The Princess and the Pea.

C theatre is the in-house production company of C venues at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe. This year the company celebrates a quarter century of producing new and classic drama as well as its own popular children's theatre programme. C theatre is renown at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe and on tour both internationally and in the UK.
