PRESS RELEASE

Colla Voce Theatre
Buried: A New Musical
by Tom Williams and Cordelia O'Driscoll

'I don't think I've ever met another me before.'

He's a shy, seemingly-average young professional. She's a sarcastic thrill-seeker. After matching on an online dating service, this young and fun-loving couple form a unique relationship when they discover something special they have in common: they're both serial killers.

Buried: A New Musical tells the story of these exceptional characters as they join forces, setting out on a trail of deception and murder whilst simultaneously attempting to navigate their way through the world of normal, adult relationships. Combining a beautiful, folk-inspired score and a biting funny script, this new musical puts a bloodthirsty spin on the traditional rom-com formula, examining the world of relationships when pushed to its extremes.

As a new, emerging theatre group, Colla Voce Theatre has enjoyed great success in the company's hometown of Sheffield. they now premiere their first piece of original writing: Buried: A New Musical written by Tom Williams and Cordelia O'Driscoll.

The company performs musical theatre with a fresh take, showcasing the unusual, the forgotten and the undiscovered. Whether they are producing stories that rarely get told, or stories that have never been told before, Colla Voce Theatre attempts to challenge the conceptions of what musical theatre can be.
